

The RivenSTAR

Three Saints and a Peacock A Showy Affair

Mother Nature put on her best for this year's Rivenstar event Three Saints and a Peacock. The

The Choir is Coming, The Choir is Coming!

To honor Prince Cameron and Princess Amalie on their coronation day May 3rd, Pieter van Doorn, director of the Rivenstar Madrigal Singers has proposed a Constellation Regional Choir. It will be comprised of voices from across the region and will be accomplished by means of magic. Actu-weather held cool but bright and sunny, just perfect. Friends from near and far gathered at the National Guard Armory near Dayton to spend the day in fun and battle. There was a contest for the showiest garb which was won by our own Herald, Lady Aurora Lucia who received some peacock feathers to brighten yet another outfit someday. Fencing and heavy fighting were topped off by an expansive meal and dancing.

ally, Pieter set up a Facebook page with all the sheet music and the music played in each voice so anyone who wants to sing, can learn the parts on his/her own. There were two group rehearsals garnering approximately twenty-five souls to sing forth. The first rehearsal was on March 22nd at the Constellation Regional A&S Faire and the second was held at Rivenstar's Three Saints event on April 19th. Good luck to the choir and many thanks to Pieter for his efforts.

Officer Reports: Baron—It was a dark and stormy night... fighter practice will be held as usual, weather permitting. Another Feast tasting is coming up. Better War will be held soon.

A&S—Several A&S Faires coming up. The Constellation Regional Faire is March 22nd. Gulf Wars classes are pretty nice too so if you are going, attend classes. (begins March 9th)

Herald—Aurora is getting some work now in the heraldry area. She wrote her first song too.

Webministrix—Breanna has a report due on the 15th and is working on the event page.

Archery—Wilhelm notes that Better War Through Archery is March 1&2 and that he is organizing rides for students to go to it. He is attempting to do the workshop he's been talking about now that some of his classes are easing up.

SOC—Griffin posted flyers on campus but the next day they were either torn down or posted over. His next idea is to get a display case but for that he needs new photos of current students in the org.

Chronicler—Jan / Feb issue out today.

Madrigals—Pieter reports they are moving toward the spring Coronation on May 3rd. He is making a Face Book page with recorded audio and sheet music that can be downloaded for practice by everyone who wants to join for the event. Pieter was also given homework—a gallant and noble task to come up with music for Aurora's new song composition.

Equestrian—Mikki is a hardy soul. She rode today. There will be an equestrian demo at This Land is Our Land on April 26th. Gwen is asking for assistance with that.

Exchequer—Francoise sent in the Domesday and sent a copy to the Seneschal, Dani.

Event Reports: Pieter went to Greyhope regional fencing practice. It was sparsely attended but those who were there were very high caliber fighters. He participated and no one hurt him nor did he hurt anyone.

Current Business: The next Feast Tasting is being moved to 6 PM on 2/23 at Huis Doorn.

Monday, February 24, 2014

Welcome to Drake from Calontir and to John from Wurmwald!

Event Reports: none, but if anyone needs a ride to Better War Through Archery, see Pieter.

Officer Reports: Exchequer—Francoise reports that the deposit was paid for the April event. The balance is to be paid any time between now and the week preceding the event. She will meet Adam at the Armory tomorrow at 9 AM to pay that balance.

Baron—Wulf noted that everyone should go to Better War. There will be Fighter Practice on Wed. as usual. He also noted that Bethie who just authorized in rapier received her Authorization card that she was now a youth marshal—obviously an error was made.

Rapier Marshal—Malie is in the process of becoming a youth marshal and will be able to lead youth activities for the Barony. Also, fencing as usual on Wed.

A&S—March 22 is the Constellation Regional A&S Faire. The Kingdom A&S Faire is on Memorial Day Weekend. Only 151 days to land grab!

Web Ministrix—Breanna is fiddling with the Events Page. Her report is in. She is requesting a deputy because she may have to move in the fairly near future.

Student Org.—Wilhelm sent a message to the Riven List to encourage people to go to Better War. He is also looking for a successor because he will be graduating in May. He notes that the Treasurer is also graduating.

Chronicler—Welcome to John and Drake

Madrigals—They are preparing for Coronation Choir and Pieter noted that there are 25 followers on the Face Book page for the music. The 1st actual rehearsal will be March 22nd at the regional A&S faire.

Equestrian—Mikki rode her horse in the cold. Equestrian practice will begin when it warms up.

Archery—not in the cards yet due to the cold.

Beaver Report—The beaver turned the tables this week. He cut down a tree really close to the house and did Pieter a favor. Pieter found the out fall of a gutter drain that he'd never found in the 12 years that he and Nan have lived there. Pieter reports that 4 muskrats, 2 herons a dozen deer and about 48 geese have joined the beaver.

Seneschal—Dani asked if Face Book and the Riven List are working for inclement weather cancellations. They seem to be. The Barony may need to elect a new Seneschal because Dani is still supposed to step up as Kingdom Chirurgeon. She can't do both and may need a stand-in for the meantime.

Current Business—Three Saints—The site is set and still looking to Their Highnesses to see if they may be coming to the event. We had the Feast Tasting report—the menu is pretty much set with lots of yummy dishes. The Pale ad went in and was accepted. Students may sign up to help if we put the volunteer list on Face Book—Adam will do it.

Lunch Tavern—Amtgard might have done it but they haven't been at meeting so it has to be nailed down shortly. Youth activities will be covered by Aurora, Rois will do the Bead Rescue. Malie will take care of Youth Fighters. There are three merchants so far. Adam will link the Face Book page and the web calendar together. Mr. Harris has agreed to “baby sit” the kitchen and set-up staff on Friday night at the Armory, so we are good there.

Other Business: There will be an email Baronial Pole shortly. Malie and Adam are looking to have a movie / armored craft night on Thursday nights at 7 PM maybe once a month or so if there is interest.

Monday, March 3, 2014

Event Reports: Erik, Pieter, Wulf, Aurora, Boen, Wilhelm and Breanna went to Better War Through Archery. Erik reported that he had a great time. Pieter said the teams were small but they earned 11 points—hey, they made double digits! Aurora reported great shopping and a Herald Table where she learned new things. She was there for both lunch and dinner. Court was fun. She also reported that the person who took the field in 3 events was attending his 1st SCA event! Boen was on the archery team too and made a head shot. Wilhelm noted that duct tape makes a workable arm guard. Wulf said he shot about 16 arrows. Arnora came “back” to visit Pieter at the event and brought with her and gave to him, loaner equipment that she still had from when she was Rivenstar's archery marshal. So now there is even more gear to share.

Next weekend is Gulf Wars and Malie and Adam are planning to go.

Officer Reports: Chatelaine—If anyone needs garb contact Rocky. She had a heraldically colored “ducky” gift for Pieter too.

Baroness—Takaya encourages everyone to make award recommendations for our event since Wulf invited Their Highnesses.

Exchequer—Francoise paid everything owed for the Armory for the event. Adam and Francoise met up there, cut the check and paid the fees. We are good to go for the 19th.

Baron—Wulf asks everyone to please volunteer to help out where ever they are able. (Adam will post the sign up roster.) Wulf said that he and Her Excellency are doing their best to make winter go away—Takaya decorated for St. Pat's Day as a way of positive thinking.

SOC—Griffin said that he and Adam were talking with Amtgard and if they work the lunch counter, they can retain the profits. Griffin needs photos of heavy fighters and people in garb, preferably students, for recruitment. He notes that if the group wants a display case, what should it contain? Maybe a rattan sword? Inexpensive armor?

(everyone who has had prior experience of the use of display cases said that they are not as secure as we'd like to think and things have gone missing from them in the past.) Griffin also noted that school is picking up for him and that he'd need someone else to help in this endeavor. He'd like to start next fall off by really campaigning with new flyers, more demos and public out-reach.

Herald—Aurora is putting together a package for submission at the end of the month. She offers to anyone who registers a device with her, she will make something with the device on it for that person. She has a report due and needs information from Christmas Court.

Webministrix—Breanna is fixing another mistake on the events web page. She has had a couple of nibbles concerning the deputy post.

Archery—There is another archery and thrown weapons event on March 22nd. Wilhelm is also looking for a replacement for himself as Archery Marshal. He is graduating soon.

Chronicler—nothing to report. Send photos and stories!

Madrigals—It was a challenging practice this evening but they will make it work. Pieter put together a Facebook page and people are signing up for the Coronation Choir. Countess Branwen is planning to sing with us again. The last time she joined us was the last Coronation Choir.

Equestrian - practice will resume when the ground is solid and dry.

Monday, March 10, 2014

Event Reports: none

Officer Reports: Madrigals—Pieter reports that it was a challenging rehearsal last week but a good one this week so he's feeling better. March 22nd is the first rehearsal of the massed choirs

Chronicler—nothing to report

Student Org.—nothing to report

Webministrix—Breanna has someone to potentially take over her office—Yoshichi (formerly Yasukata)

Baron—Wulf reports to look for the quadrennial election ballot to come in the mail. Do not assume that Takaya and Wulf are the only ones who want to be Baron and Baroness. If you are interested in the office, say so. (He also noted that on page 2 of the Exponent there was an article on the local Roller Derby teams and a photo of Leonie LeDuc former Seneschal to Rivenstar.)

Exchequer—Francoise noted that the balance of the site fee for the Armory was paid and we are good to go with all the same access as last year. She also got the first advance site fee in the mail this week. The bank needs another signature card. Francoise thought it was all taken care of a long time ago but will do it again. T's crossed and i's dotted.

A&S—The regional A&S is coming, go see it, go sing it!

Baroness—nothing this week

Chatelaine—Rocky got some T-tunics to Griffin. If you need garb, talk to Rocky who notes that there is no more ice on her road! Yea.

Seneschal—Dani sent the notification of the event to the Pale, the Rivenlist and the website so Baronial polling can take place in May.

Off Topic—Wulf offered up fresh and/or seasoned firewood to anyone in need. They have some to spare.

Current Business: Dani noted that there needs to be another inventory of items being stored at her house and perhaps a thinning out of said items; maybe after the event, to fulfill tracking of Baronial assets.

Three Saints—Marian noted that the recipes would be ready tomorrow and they could be sent to Breanna.

Future: If the weather holds nice and it is not too mucky, Nan said that she'll put up the archery targets if people want to shoot next Sunday.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Monday, March 17, 2014

Event Reports: Malie and Adam went to Gulf Wars. They report that temperatures were in the mid-70s but had some chilly weather too. It only rained once. There were lots of equestrian events and excited royalty. Malie ended up marshalling and because she did, His Highness borrowed her gorget and two of his squires borrowed her other gear. So she helped to field three warriors. At the Rose Tournay there, 10 Midrealm warrior participated, 5 of whom made it to the 6th round but all were knocked out by round 7.

Pieter went to Stone Dog Inn on Saturday and noted that there was less of a crowd than usual because of Gulf Wars. They had fencing and a pillow fight! There was also the annual Tournament of the Courtier in pentathlon form.

Officer Reports: Chatelaine—Contact Rocky for garb and if needing an unusual size, please call ahead. She was contacted by the Librarian in Otterbein who is asking for a demo to kick off their summer reading program. There is also a ren-faire demo opportunity in the future.

Baroness—In Pennsic news, Takaya noted that Virnin posted Pennsic information look for just Rivenstar not the Barony of Rivenstar.

Exchequer—nothing to report

Baron—He sent in his and Takaya’s letter of intent to run for the office (Baron and Baroness). He visited with former Barony members in Michigan last weekend.

A&S—Olwen noted that Constellation Regional A&S Faire is this weekend. There are 130 days to land-grab. Olwen is looking for someone to take over her office.

Web Ministrix—Breanna is well on her way to getting Yoshichi signed up for the office of web minister.

Student Org.—It is Spring Break this week. Wilhelm notes that club elections are coming up.

Chronicler—nothing to report

Madrigals—Pieter is preparing for the first rehearsal at the Regional A&S Faire this Saturday.

Seneschal—Dani is trying to prepare for the letter of intent mailing for a possible replacement of Baron and Baroness Rivenstar (not gonna happen is the general consensus). She needs a list of all zip codes of the Barony.

Current Business: Three Saints—Adam did a site walk-through confirming space and price. He also has confirmation on Amtgard helping with lunch and on the Pale ad. He noted that with the price of gas now and the fact that it is not looking to be overly crowded, that we should consider offering a gas card raffle at Troll. Paying the site fee buys a chance to win (also encourages everyone to pay their site fees). It is just a nice “thank you” to make someone’s day. If it is advertised well it might encourage more attendance? As to the amount of the card; since it is the 40th year of the Barony, it should be $40 to kick off the year of celebration. Adam will buy the card at either BP, Speedway or Marathon. There was a question on the family cap—are in-laws included. It was voted that if they live together, then yes but if it really needed? Marian gave Breanna a list of ingredients for the Feast menu so that can be published.

Other Business: Dani is still looking for a replacement Seneschal as she moves on to be the Kingdom Chirurgeon.

If it is warm and dry on Sunday, there will be an equestrian walk-around.

There is a new position in the Society—Deputy Seneschal.

Pennsic—Virnin may not be there for full 2 weeks due to a new job situation.

Breanna is asking for help in voting for a mobility contest for her friend Amber. People can vote once a day every day. Go to voteforamber.com

Malie has been looking at the loaner gear and some of it will need to be replaced soon. She is asking if we can invest in more masks, gorgets and jackets. Maybe we can get donations from people who are updated their own equipment. The Student Org. has money that might be used as well.

From Francoise—She spoke with someone from the rescue society called Forever Morgans. Keep them in mind if you are looking for a horse.

Monday, March 24, 2014

Event Reports: The Rivenstar Madrigal Singers went to the Constellation Regional A&S Faire in Burlington. It was a nice site and had the advantage of being close. Francoise helped in the tally room. She said there were 9 entries; 2 blades, 2 cooking, 3 singing and 2 brewing offsite. Everyone got at least a second. There were 3 merchants. It was a nice place for a small event. There was some fighting out back but it was cold. Rocky and Drake did some calligraphy while there. Drake had some name discussions with the Herald. The Coronation Choir had its’ first rehearsal and did credibly well. Kudos to Drake for learning his part in a week so he could lead the tenor section. Marian and Michelle sat in on Abbot Johann’s talk about Carolingian era religion. Nan scored 10 new archery targets for the Barony at a very good price.

Officer Reports: Madrigals—Pieter reported an excellent rehearsal tonight but missed our sopranos. It was also a good practice on Saturday.

Equestrian—The group will try to have a practice on Sunday at 1 PM. The 1st equestrian event is April 12th at Crystal Chamfron in St. Louis.

Archery—there will be archery practice after riding on Sunday at 5PM at Huis Doorn. Hopefully the weather will cooperate.

Chronicler—not much happening

Student Org.—Wilhelm will stop by the office of the Dean of Students and see if the club money could go to support and buy loaner gear for fighting. Summer rooms need to be scheduled and fighter practice for after May 5th.

Herald—Aurora has a report due soon and will include names of people who were awarded at Christmas Court. Aurora also stated that she is involved in a largess group on Facebook and is looking for where and how to donate her items to a certain Baron and Baroness or the Crown.

Webministrix—Yoshichi went through the website this weekend and corrected many errors. He is looking to scrap the whole site and start over with the code so it will be even on mobile devices and in compliance with disabilities needs (available for the blind.) He was asked to create an event page for the Equestrian Symposium in July. Pieter just got it on the Kingdom Calendar.

Baron—April will be here before we know it.

Exchequer—Francoise got the signature card forms signed (again) and taken to the bank (again) to get the accounts signed over to the new officers. She already has 1 check for site fees for Three Saints. Seneschal—Dani needs a replacement because she can no longer be seneschal since she's to be the Kingdom Chirurgeon. So someone please volunteer.

Baroness—Takaya reports that they are starting to ease into equestrian practice. They will need insurance which the Barony will purchase since it is open to participation to anyone in the Barony. Takaya, Pieter and Nan need to be listed as land owners for the purpose and a check can be made out after the paperwork is done. Register for Pennsic, look for it on the website under Rivenstar not Barony of Rivenstar.

Chatelaine—Rocky contacted the Librarian in Otterbein who is looking for a Saturday in late April or early May. The group chose May 10th.

Current Business: Three Saints—There is now a confirmed class: introduction to Falconry with Nicodemus. Xenon will teach silversmithing if we first check to see if fire is ok in the Armory. But he can teach in a tent if not in the building. Rocky asked if we have a “baby sitter” for Friday night at 5 PM? Wulf will speak to Maj. Harris. Adam is working on a contact list to share and update. Gas card—last week we discussed getting a gas card as a door prize. Adam is looking at BP gas and we may even be able to get a custom gas card with the Barony Logo. We are looking for a Dance Mistress for after the feast. Wilhelm purchased dance music for the Barony and he has a dance book with instructions. Rocky offered an older boom box which is quite loud. Adam wanted to know if there were any other lists that he could post to for other classes. Breanna has an interested merchant; Viking Archery is looking for a contact.

Other Business: On Saturday, April 5th there will be a birthday party for the Baroness at Huis Doorn beginning at 6 PM. Aurora mentioned a non-SCA medieval cooking demo at Ohio State if anyone is interested. The Amtgard Coronation is this coming Sunday. Griffin said he posted it on the Rivenlist. It will be at Faith West from 1-5 PM.

Monday, March 31, 2014

Event Reports: Pieter drove toward the event they were planning on going to in Ohio but the snow was so bad and slowed traffic so much that the event would have been just about over before he got there. So he came home. It was good too because Reuven and Devorah (former Barony members) visited them. Drake went to equestrian practice and rode and rode and rode. Puschky had his debute practice. Rio tripped and Takaya was thrown off at a roll. It was good to wear a helmet. Otherwise it was a good practice. There was also archery practice and ax throwing. Erik and Wilhelm threw axes with Nan and Erik, Nan, Wilhelm, Breanna and Drake shot archery.

Officer Reports: Chatelaine—Contact Rocky if you need garb. Contact her in advance if size may be an issue.

Baroness—Takaya said we are getting ready for our event and equestrian events. Consider paying to be a member. The Barony needs 50 sustaining paid members to remain a Barony.

A&S—Olwen reports not much happening this week. It is the middle of the A&S season. Aurora made two largess baskets with the Rivenstar emblem on the top.

Baron—It is time for the Baronial report.

Webminister—Yoshichi just received his sustaining membership card and is now good for 3 years. Web page information—The new equestrian page is now up. He has some of the framework for the new site built. He recommended Google e-mail accounts (gmail) for all officers rather than their personal e-mail addresses. He also needs an official permission for him to have officers names on the webpage. So, send him a note stating that fact.

Herald—Aurora did the quarterly report. She has 3 devices ready to send and one person picked a name. She is working on a name with another person.

Archery and Student Org.—There was archery practice this past Sunday and will be again next Sunday at 5PM. They have not started Thurs. practices yet. Wilhelm sent out an e-mail looking for a new Student org. president and treasurer. It is out on official channels for the benefit of Purdue. We need room reservations for May ASAP.

Chronicler—not much to report

Madrigals—Pieter reports they are singing mightily and getting ready for the rehearsal at our event. It will be at 12:30 with sectionals at 1,2,3 and 4.

Exchequer—Francoise has two pre-payments for the event already deposited. The bank says the mailing address on the account is now updated. There is an Exchequer meeting at Coronation in May.

Seneschal—Dani has a couple of people who may be interested in taking over her office.

Other Business: Baroness Takaya's birthday party is on April 5th at Huis Doorn at 6 PM. Bring any dish you want to share.

Monday, April 7, 2014

Event Reports: Olwen went to Rites of Spring this weekend. Her Highness Amalie was there. The Feast was gluten free and Olwen was happy!

Officer Reports: Chatelaine—Rocky had a request from the Magna Charta Dames for another talk but it is May 3rd, but since it is the same day as Coronation, she had to turn them down.

Baroness—Takaya did some price checking on items from Trader Joe's. She'll get together with Olwen and Marian to go over that stuff.

A&S—Olwen reports that events are still going on regionally and the Kingdom A&S is on the day before Crown Tournament in Tipton.

Webminister—Yoshichi sent out an e-mail to get permission to publish contact information. He also needs to get Drake a photo list. And had a question as to what branch records were. The consensus is that it refers to our baronial records.

Exchequer—Francoise reports that quarterly reports are due at the end of the month. She has received three prepayments for feast and site for Three Saints. The change of Seneschal office will require a new signature change on the bank records again.

Baron—Wulf encourages everyone to go to arts things. Come to Three Saints and help out!

Herald—nothing to report

Student Org.—Rooms are scheduled for the summer. Wilhelm sent the schedule information to the Rivenlist. The student org. now has volunteers for both the president and treasurer offices.

Archery -- There were 9 or 10 people at practice last Sunday. They had brand new ax butts, thanks to Wulf. They work really well and are very heavy too. Amelia came out for the first time and had a lot of fun hitting numerous targets. There will be practice again on Sunday at 5 PM weather permitting.

Chronicler—nothing to report

Equestrian—It seemed to be youth day on the riding list on Sunday courtesy of Mikki who worked with the child. The rest of the equestrian team rode; trying to get the horses ridden and ready for Crystal Chamfron this weekend.

Beaver Report—The beaver nearly flooded the pond to a point where it is spilling its banks.

Madrigals—Pieter says they are ready to go for the big regional practice at Three Saints on the 19th.

Current Business: The site tokens are getting done. The feast tokens are done. Yoshichi is updating the website. Look for volunteer opportunities! Keep an eye and ear out for the judges of the "fashion show". Takaya has a book and Olwen has a mirror for prizes. Question, are torches ok for a lighting ceremony? Francoise has past collectable feast tokens to put out from the past. She might need some clip boards for troll as well. The lunch tavern is set with chicken soup, vegetable soup, ham, hard cooked eggs, pretzels, sandwiches, hot dogs, cheeses and cut up fresh vegetables. There are 2 merchants signed up so far. The costume ladies and a "yard sale". The kitchen is requesting people to save empty egg shells for Surprise Eggs. There was a discussion on setting up the tent or just a fly.

Other Business: Dani noted that this Barony has enough members to remain intact and that two letters of intent were filed.

More Three Saints Photos

Volunteers: The Unsung Heroes of the Event! Thanks!
