

The RivenSTAR

Middle Kingdom Equestrian Event July 4th Weekend.

Twelve horses, their owners and many other friends participated in the third Middle Kingdom Equestrian Event at Kirkridge Valley Farms over the three day July 4th weekend. Hard work and great planning made this event an unmitigated success. Mother Nature even cooperated with relatively low humidity and some cooling breezes. The ground crew performed beautifully doing many tasks that in the past, the participants would have had to share. Their help and effort truly made the event enjoyable for the owners. Authorizations took place, some "pony rides" as well but most importantly, the games and classes took center stage. Food and camping were provided on site for convenience.

Barony Honored by Visit from HRM Cameron

His Royal Majesty Cameron of Beckenham, 89th King Middle Kingdom attended the Middle Kingdom Equestrian Event and there authorized equestrian, participated on the thrown weapons range and held an informal Court from which all came away cheerful. Awards of Arms were granted to Lady Aurora and her Lord Boen as well as Lady Mikayla. Nan Astrid of York was granted a White Chamfron and her Lord Pieter vanDoorn was granted a White Lance. Among the other awards and recognitions given, Marian Hryhorcova received a Purple Fret.

Seneschal Gallien took a poll of those present to determine which was the primary reason for their attendance at the business meeting (business, socialization or specific topics of conversation). He has planned to structure the meeting so as to meet these priorities.

Event Reports: Takaya, Pieter, Nan and Mikki had a planning session for the Equestrian Event. Gallien went to MKAD and re-authorized again. It was incredibly well attended.

Officer Reports: Archery—Everyone was too busy to play Archery this week. Note: A new Archery marshal or MIT will be needed by Oct. We don't currently have a warranted Archery Marshal. The question was raised as to whether we actually need one but Takaya said that we probably did because it is a published activity in the Barony. Aurora said that maybe Boen would be interested.

A&S—Go to Crown for the Kingdom A&S faire there on Saturday. Pennsic classes should be showing up soon. 67 days to land grab. Deadline for registration is June 15th.

Herald—Aurora recognized Drake as a potential incoming Herald. She is training him. She found out that we do currently have a populace badge but since it is what we currently use to indicate a recipient of the Order of the Rivenstar. She had examples of possible badges to be used as a populace badge. A vote needs to be taken. It could be a vote of the entire populace or of only the officers. The discussion was tables to be picked up at another time. Aurora indicated that she had another report due soon.

Chronicler—an issue of the RivenSTAR is out today. We do things. Tell me what you do.

Webminister—Yoshichi is looking for web material such as articles, history and photos. Marian has all the photos published in the RivenSTAR over the last several years and some historical ones from Wulf and will pass them all on with his permission. Yoshichi hopes to have the new website up in 2—2.5 weeks. Gallien noted that the constellation website is somewhat broken and Yoshichi said he'd volunteer his services.

Exchequer—Francoise needs to get Gallien's signature on the bank account. She gave a check for Insurance to Takaya for the standard equestrian insurance and will give one at a later date to cover the event.

'Coise notes that everyone at the event must sign a waiver whether they ride or not. It can be in roster form. She will be at Troll for the Event.

Marshal—Archery will happen at the event if there is interest. Wilhelm can show up. There will be a call out on the list and on Facebook. Archery can begin at 6 PM on Thurs nights starting next week. Armored and rapier fighting will be at 6:30 PM on Slayter Hill starting this week Wednesday.

Equestrian—there will not be practice this week but there is an equestrian event at Crown this weekend. There will be authorizations at our event. Takaya has a report due Wed.

Current Business: Equestrian Event—there is an on-line volunteer list. We are hoping to offer people who bring horses the opportunity to ride as much as possible. Asking for ground crew volunteers from the non-riders in the Barony to re-set the games on Fri and Sat morning. Pieter would like to have a ground crew practice/training and combine it with a clean-up day. All volunteers will be fed that day. Training will include steps for safety etc. There are procedures for most things. Training day will be June 1st. Drake and Wilhelm volunteered as did Gallien when he is not busy with Heraldry activities. Anyone can come out and help with the Work Day. Many hands are needed. Nan is cooking!

Baron - Concerning Baronial Badges and after conferring with Her Excellency Takaya, Wulf presented a possible alternative to those mentioned earlier by Aurora.

Off Topic: 'Coise noted that the Hoosier Hills fiber fest is June 2. At the Mind Boggling Event at the Celery Bog, 'Coise grabbed a brochure of "natural dyeing with native plants" with a reference to more information at www.spinningdaily.com Check it out if interested.

Special Topic Discussion: Aurora read the pertinent text for the choice and election of a Populace Badge needing letters of support for selection of devices then outlined the two routes to go through to make it official: Officer's vote or 3/4 of populace vote.

Aurora will work up the design in several iterations. She noted that with a field-less badge, only 1 point of difference is different. Discussion ensued on the various badges for the Orders of Rivenstar vs. the one proposed. A tower is related to grandeur (wealth and esteem) first then to defense secondly.

Gallien is now officially the Seneschal of the Barony as he just checked his email and the paperwork has come through.

Monday, June 2, 2014

Event Reports: The Rivenstar equestrian team went to Crown Tourney this weekend, as did Sigulf, Wulf, Francoise and Dani among others. Cadogan and AnnMarie won. The team enjoyed the challenge course. Michaela is now a true member of the SCA because she was sewing until 4:30 AM so that her dress would match her horse's barding! Siguld judged the Kingdom A&S. Sir Marcus from Fort Wayne was put on vigil for a Laurel. Lady Mairi was put on vigil for Pelican. Dani stepped up on Sunday night as the Kingdom Chirurgeon. Hand it to Llewellyn, the Feast was great, even though it was very, very late. Pieter also reported on Chaos at the Castle. The fencing was great as was the melee sequence with Styrofoam fruit. Yoshichi was there and had a couple of fun moments hiding fruit. Pieter won the tournament.

Officer Reports: Chronicler—Marian gave Yoshichi all the past issues of the RivenSTAR in digital form as well as a copy of all the photos she had.

Herald—Aurora is now the outgoing Herald and Drake is officially registered and ready to take over. They will do the June report together.

Webminister—Yoshichi is updating content just now. The new website is all uploaded and ready to go in place of the old site.

A&S—Aurora is now the incoming A&S officer and will arrange to get with Olwen to officially take over the office. She is moving toward hosting sewing classes at her house and maybe even a banner in the future.

Exchequer—'Coise's report is due in June. She owes a check to Pieter for insurance, getting ready for the Equestrian Event. Next up—Pennsic.

Seneschal—Gallien noted that his report was turned in on time.

Baroness—Takaya said to register for Pennsic very soon if you are going. June 15th is the deadline.

Baron—Wulf asked those going to Pennsic to send a the dimensions of their tent including the fly and guide ropes to Virnin Clay and copy Adam on it as well. Thank you for any who helped Virnin move and who cleaned up at Huis Doorn.

Marshal—The Armory is available for back-up we are expecting rain on Wed.

Archery—There was practice on Sunday. Drake, Wilhelm and Breanna shot. Practice will be again on Thurs. at 5 PM weather permitting.

Current Business: Equestrian Event—Much was accomplished by the ground crew this weekend. We now have a fire pit. Vegetation is cleared. The shower construction has commenced and has gone up very easily so far. Shower—if the water flow stops, the heat shuts off. Also, if the water flows for longer than 20 minutes, the heat shuts off. Port-o-johns have been rented; 1 for the camping area (handicapped accessible), 1 in the causeway and 1 near the archery range. The new gaming equipment has been tested thanks to Mikki and Drake. Pieter has sent a query to determine if the King and Queen want to hold Court and to ascertain their other needs. Pieter also took care of the Pale ad.

He changed the fee structure so as to charge for camping, not a site fee which is more equitable for those using the site. Pieter asked about packets of blank forms and waivers. Dani volunteered to help on those. Where are we at with the volunteer sign-up sheet? There is a complement of ground crew and training session will be on Sunday for them. Drake will keep score for the Marshals' Only Tourney on Saturday. Francoise will be at Troll, Takaya will be MIC, Gallien will serve as Field Herald. There are lots of classes planned. Kiltgern will teach many but not all for others have volunteered. There will also be guided riding for novices.

Other Business: Takaya announced that she is teaching a class and won't be able to be at business meeting for the next 8 weeks.

There was a question raised if anyone had heard about Baronial Polling. No, no one had. Dani sent an email inquiry yesterday but no one has responded yet. For those who know her, Imelda will be coming to Pennsic and camping with Rivenstar. She'll be bringing her dogs Lucy and Ricky.

Special Topics: Discussion on the Populace Badge. Aurora noted that The order of the Rivenstar is registered as a Baronial Badge. The Defender of Rivenstar; a Rivenstar on escutcheon without a border or with border was discussed. Then discussion moved on to 2 possible populace badges. Aurora will try for a chess rook azure with rivenstar argent overall.

Parking Lot: The shower tent set up configurations and equestrian menu were discussed.

Monday, June 9, 2014

Event Reports: Drake, Nan and Marian had a food prep session for the Equestrian Even at Marian's house this weekend. During Equestrian practice for the event, Shadow was acting up. Pieter noted that there was a Life Flight out of Northern Oaken War Maneuvers this weekend, a fencer with a concussion but he's ok now. Let's make sure to be save out on the lists!!

Officers Reports: Archery—Breanna noted that she and Nan had unofficial practice on Thurs and it went very well. On Sunday, Breanna, Boen, Aurora and Wilhelm shot. They noted that improvement is noticeable. Another practice will be held again on Thurs.

Equestrian—There was practice on Sunday in which Mikki, Drake, Nan and Pieter participated.

Exchequer—Francoise sent out a check about a month ago for ACCEPS for the ability to accept payment on-line. We need to link ACCEPS to our website as we are now on the Kingdom site.

A&S—Olwen is looking for information on Pennsic classes. Lots of Bardic stuff happening.

Herald (Deputy) - Drake has nothing to report

Chronicler—Marian needs someone to take notes for next two weeks due to her vacation

Seneschal—Note that next Monday is the deadline for Pennsic registration. Gallien has not yet heard back on the Baronial Poll. He has begun the process to gain approval to get a background check so that he could be the official baronial representative for any youth that may be at fighter practice. With that done, the Barony is legally covered.

Baron—register for Pennsic

Current Business: Equestrian Event—there is a distinct lack of guests. We are way behind on registrations from where we were other years. We can have a very small event though, we may want to set a minimum number that we should not go below. We may need to reconsider having the equestrian event in the future. However, the point is that this year, Royalty is planning to attend. The high price of gas may be a factor in low participation. Pieter is asking for help withy putting up the tents prior to the event—maybe on Tues., July 1st at 6:30 PM. He would also like to borrow trash cans from Barony members rather than purchase more. May need someone to collect trash. Decided to stay with 2 port-o-pots because of the low registration numbers. Water—We need someone to cover water as well, perhaps Wilhelm so is planning to be there. Preparations are progressing. We now have new game equipment and also the tables and chairs needed for the event. Pieter has been trying to get word out via e-mail to various lists and Facebook to encourage more participation in the event. With the possibility of a Court, get award recommendations in soon.

Pennsic—Nan will have Cook Group info out soon.

The Chronicler was on vacation for two weeks followed by a week without a meeting due to the July 4th holiday and Equestrian Event.

Monday, July 7, 2014

Officer Reports: Seneschal—Gallien has completed the background check process and can now serve as the Baronial Youth Minister at events if needed. Announcement that next week's meeting will be at the Silver Dipper. We have no room re-

Exchequer—Francoise's second quarterly report is done. She has the checkbook at meeting tonight if needed.

Web Minister—The photos that Chelsea took will be up on the Facebook page and we can tag them from there.

Herald—Aurora and Drake are working on the Rivenstar Populace Badge

A&S—Olwen has a report due next week. Look for Pennsic University on line for classes.

Archery—There was the event so there wasn't any archery practice between last week and tonight.

Chronicler—please send photos of the event to Marian. She didn't get a chance to take any; being in the kitchen most of the time.

Baron—Wulf thanked everyone who participated in the Equestrian Event. Now everyone should get ready for War.

Current Business: Equestrian Event Report—It is done! It went well according to the "post mortem" held on Sunday morning. Details will wait for the parking lot period after the meeting. Question—Do we want to do this again next year or wait another year? Discussion tabled until we've all recovered from this one! Many Awards were given: King Cameron awarded AOA's to Lady Aurora, Lord Boen and Lady Mikayla. Marian received a Purple Fret, Nan a White Chamfron and Pieter a White Lance. The first two Deans of the Equestrian College were present, Baroness Mistress Isabeau Pferbandiger and Master Sir Fionnbharr MacShane. His Majesty King Cameron obtained an Equestrian Authorization and played on the thrown weapons range. The efforts that were put into the camping area were all well received. People really appreciated the ground crew, especially that they were non-participating members who volunteered from the Barony. Eleven people Authorized on Saturday. Drake was one of them. Verdai was amazed at how many equestrians participated and was also amazed to be able to ride several different horses. The horse seemed to enjoy the event as well. They all seemed to be saying good-bye to each other as they pulled out. There was one rescue—Bronwen's mom came from Ohio and ran out of gas within 8 miles of the site. They sent a message out on Facebook and by the time Pieter went out to see them, the rescue was already on the way. Thanks to Adam MacAoidh. Also noted that as a Barony we may want to thank Kat and Tawner who gave nearly a week of their time to make this event happen and they aren't even members of the SCA! Hoobah for them! Thanks also go out to Lady Aurora who made some beautiful flag-fans and offered them in exchange for a donation to support equestrian events. She may be willing to do more of that in the idea of helping with memberships etc.

Event Parking Lot: Had it been other than His Majesty Cameron, we would have had egg on our faces. We need to have more effort put into Royalty Retainers and a liaison. As he arrived Cameron just said that he was here to "hang out" and didn't want a lot of fuss. There was a suggestion to have Authorizations on both days of the event and in the evenings so as to get the most out of the day. Give more guided riding and activities in the day. People who bring their horses suggested that people who ride them might be able to show their gratitude in a monetary sense. One thought was to put out a "tip jar" or have a pony parade with mug shots or even characteristics and foibles. A future class idea from Ankara was horse economy class. A class on the cost of owning a horse in real dollars. Another idea was put forth of hiring a riding instructor in a paid position for the riding lessons. It might not work well because people need to confirm for that sort of thing and getting commitment this year was like pulling teeth. Nan had a good idea of getting a hand-washing station for near the food tent. Perhaps one could be found at a sporting goods store. As to the food, maybe sharing the load on food prep would be possible in the future. Also remember the roaster might come in handy rather than counting on the ovens only. They attendees loved the Marshals Tourney at 9 AM. The MIT's ran the tourney with some of the Marshals (Takaya included) making it an educational experience by purposefully breaking the rules to see if they would get caught. To the MIT's credit, they were. Tula called all the ground crew over and thanked them. Francoise said she enjoyed sitting in the shade and relaxing. It was a nice breeze. Archery will be Thurs and Sun if it isn't raining.

Monday, July 14, 2014

Meeting held at the Silver Dipper

Event Reports: Sigulf, Pieter and others reported on Simple Day. There were over 500 people at the event. Equestrians came to the main camp because the arena was so far away. Pieter got to ride Whisky. Bethie authorized in sword and shield. Gwen learned how to sing a stick (mounted boffer). Sir Marcus was made a Laurel for metal working and weapons.

Officer Reports: Webminister—Yoshichi gave photos of the Equestrian Event to Marian for the RivenSTAR.

Archery—threw knives and axes. There were 5 people on Thurs. On Sun., Breanna, Wilhelm and Nan cut cards with axes and knives.

Baron—He and Takaya went to see Duchess Zarina in Illinois so weren't able to go to Simple Day.

Equestrian—Horses! Pieter noted that at the Equestrian Event at one time there were 12 about him. They has 11 authorizations and less pony rides than usual. Fionbarr and Isabeau arrived just in time for Court. Both Bethie and Gallien had chances to ride. Shadow tried to act up but Pieter handled him. He was worked. No one was thrown. His Majesty held Court, awards were given. It was less formal, almost a moot with entertainment throughout.

Current Business: Someone noted that there should be a section of the RivenSTAR names "From the Baron's Vault". Note from Pennsic—Virnin appropriated the Rivenstar Power and Light Solar Panels for over the showers and Kitchen Sink and set up a phone charging station by the showers.

There will be Archery on Thurs and Sun after 5 PM. weather permitting. Please look for updates on road construction information as you get to Pennsic. Pass the info along.

Monday, August 11, 2014

Officer Reports: Equestrian—The horses were walked this week. There is a horse event over Labor Day weekend. The Middle Kindom Equestrian Event was a success. We actually made a little money. It was a great site. (someone noted modestly)

A&S—As of today, Aurora is the A&S officer. She is going for a monthly sewing/make your own pancake brunch on the first Sunday of the month starting on Sept. 1st. She is looking for those who are interested in teaching classes especially classes for new-comers who might need garb. Gallien suggested that fighters could sew their own armor.

Archery—Four new sets of fingerless gloves were added to the equipment. Nan purchased 3 sets and the other set was thrown in because she was buying commissions for others and gave the vendor so much business.

Webminister—Yoshichi noted that he was now job-hunting having graduated. He may have to leave Rivenstar. He is looking for content to finish the website and is trying to put together a continuous slide show for recruitment fairs.

Exchequer—we are good, no recent expenditures.

Student Org.—Booth space for both activities carnivals has been reserved. We may even have some stage time as well. The Call-out will be Sept 3rd. at the Armory from 8-10 PM.

Marshal—Armored practice will still be out at Slayter Hill for the next two weeks.

Current Business: Need to set a time to go to Huis Doorn to unload the trailer from Pennsic. Sunday, 1 PM. Looking forward—Christmas Court—the dates could be Dec 6th or 13th. We can't have the University Church this year. The church has to vacate the premises. It has been purchased by Purdue and is slated for destruction. So, Rocky will look into St. Ann's and Guiliana will look into Marriot Hall. Choir practice will begin on Aug. 25th.

Pennsic Report: Rivenstar was well represented on the rapier lists. Pieter either won or placed in several events. There was a Bouquet Tourney and the victor brought home a large bouquet of flowers for Nan. There was also a Thugs for Jugs Tourney in which Pieter fought on behalf of Duchess Zarina. The Queen of Atlantis gave Pieter a ring that she wanted present at Zarina's wake. There was also the annual Greybeard's Tourney which was the last fencing event on the last day for those 50 and older. Participants were between 50 and 67. The prize was the "Holy Grail" but since it was only a knock off, it may not work. Pieter won that too and will remain 54 forever. In terms of total war points, the East won but the Middle won all the rapier point which could have been won. Chirurgeon—Dani noted that the rapier fighters have grown to the point where their injuries now match those of the heavies. She also noted a lovely dance and response of the rapier lines on both sides. Gallien noted that EMS was always right there where needed. Gallien represented Rivenstar at the Known Worlde Baronial Rapier Champions Showcase which was won by a young lady only 16 yrs. old. He said that he was a very strong second though. The new Known Worlde Ladies Rapier Champion is our own Narissa della Badessa. Congratulations!! Merchants—this was not the best ever war for Guiliana and Sigulf but it was pretty good. Midnight Madness was great, with many merchants selling out early. At Court, Dr. Henry Best was made a Laurel. Dani had some good news at Pennsic. She was able to get in touch with the Society Chirurgeon in her capacity as the Kingdom Chirurgeon. She has now been declared a Master Chirurgeon. Takaya asked her to become warrented by the Society standards a few years ago. She has been the Baronial Chirurgeon for 23 years.

More Event Photos

First Deans of the Equestrian College Baroness Mistress Isabeau Pfarebandiger and Master Sir Fionnbharr MacShane revisited Rivenstar during the Middle Kingdom

Equestrian Event. Fionbarr gave an impromptu farrier demonstration starring Dargo and Blackie, Enkara and Aendru's horses.

Nan and Pieter Thanks for all you do.

Nan received The Order of the White Chamfron which is an award given by the crown to those who have shown proficiency in equestrian activities or service in promoting the same.

Pieter received The Order of the White Lance which shall be given to individuals who, in the sight of the Crown, have shown excellence in two of three areas of equestrian activities: skill, service and the arts and sciences.
