Rivenstar's Annual Fall Callout

There were actually two call-outs this year. Two different dates were announced at the Baronial business meeting and at the Activities fairs. So being nothing if not flexible, Rivenstar had one call-out on August 27th and one on September 3rd. Both events had quite good turnouts in terms of both barony members and those seeking more information. There were some great fighting demonstrations on both the heavy and rapier lists. Rocky was on hand to write guests names in calligraphy. Some of the Rivenstar Madrigali performed; including Carolyn who had only been to one practice meeting. She sang beautifully!

Duchess Zarina's Final Voyage

by His Grace Moonwulf Starkaadher-son

Duchess Zarina
Daeth (aka Lucinda Seaman), twice

Queen of the Middle Kingdom and first Baroness of Rivenstar by courtesy, passed away on July 24 of this year due to complications from ovarian cancer. She was a very early member in the Society for Creative Anachronism's Great Dark Horde and twice Queen of the Midrealm, alongside two complicated and sometimes difficult kings, Michael of Boarshaven and Moonwulf Starkaadher-son. Zarina was also one of the first Midrealm Queens (if not its first) to don armor and fight in the Kingdom's wars.

Meeting Notes:

Monday, August 25, 2014

Officer Reports: Student Org—Bethie was not present but sent in her report via e-mail. The BGR Activities Fair Call-out went well on Saturday. There were lots of interested students but our Rivenstar call-out was mistakenly advertised for Wed. this week not next week. She is also attempting to set up a room schedule for next semester. Griffin showed the posters he made to advertise the SCA. On the posters, call-out was advertised as being on 9/3. So a vote was taken to have two call-outs. That will be done. Griffin has posted these posters in various places on campus and in various businesses around campus. He is looking for a volunteer to keep posting them because of over-posting when all the other campus clubs start to hang their posters. Griffin received an e-mail from PSUB Marketing which said to have the tables set up between 10 and 10:30 AM on Thurs. 8/28 for the all-campus activities fair in Academy Park from 11—2. Bethie is expected to be there the whole time and is looking for others to participate. Pieter and Rocky will also attend. Pieter also reported that last Saturday was a great turn out and that one singer, Carolyn, who was recruited at that fair, attended madrigal practice this evening. He also noted that Aurora's book-marks were a real hit.

Chatelaine—The Magna Charta group in Indianapolis is looking for a speaker. Member of Rivenstar have done this several times and Rocky is looking for some help from the Indianapolis area. If you need garb or have some to trade in, see Rocky. She also is looking to thin out the Gold Key holding a little by sharing with another group in need.

Equestrian—Three horses and three people are going to Mounted War Games this weekend: Pieter, Takaya and Mikki.

Madriagali—The choir began practice for the season today with a new member, Carolyn who came because of the activities fair. There will be no practice next Mon. due to Labor Day.

Seneschal—There will be no meeting next Monday.

Archery—Breanna reported that Quentin was pleased with his new axe.

A&S—Aurora could not be present but sent notes that she'd like to get A&S classes together. She will send a query to the Rivenlist and the face-book page.

Baron—Moonwulf is choosing to divest himself of some stuff. He has lots of leather scraps that people could use for pouches or straps available on a first come—first served basis. Duchess Zarina memorial service will take place at dusk on Sept. 20th and Wulf is looking for some archers to help with the service.

Exchequer—Francoise reported that no one has needed anything and that we are solvent. There is a need to expand or replace some of the rapier loaner gear. Some club funding and some baronial funds may be spent in this endeavor. Mallie will soon do an inventory to assess needs and replacement needs.

Baroness—Takaya asked everyone to participate in the call-outs and think ahead to Christmas Court Current Business: Christmas Court—Rocky has not yet checked on St. Anne's. Breanna will look into St. Andrew's. Looking at Dec. 6th as a best date.

Gallien proposed a look at the way other places plan events, as in individuals make proposals and "bid" for running the baronial event.

Guilianna said that we could use Marriot Hall on Dec. 13th for Christmas Court. We will vote on this in 2 weeks at the next meeting.

Welcome to Lady Marina who came back to Rivenstar for a visit and dropping in on the business meeting.

Monday, Sept. 8, 2014

Event Reports: Gallien reported going to MKAOD this weekend. It was held two weeks later than normal. We have had two call-outs since we've last met. There are several new people playing now as a result of those call-outs. Narissa took some of them on at the second call-out and gave them some experience.

Pieter reported going to Harvest Days in Flaming Gryphon where the tournament of Chivalry was held. Pieter said that he was having a very good day until... Warder Vincent kicked his butt. Two weeks ago the Rivenstar Lance rode they ROCKED. Takaya, Pieter and Mikki went to Mounted War Games. Mikki found her niche playing Buzkashi, a rugby type game played with a stuffed goat-like FIFI the sheep. She surprised the other team by riding around on the outside and ripping the goat away from them. It is all captured on video and posted on Facebook. Look for Leopold-o-Lastre. There was also a challenge course to test riding skill which Pieter won. Takaya stole the show with Puszki at Court. His Highness asked for entertainment. Takaya asked Puszki to bow to the Queen. He went down on one knee before the crown. They played the traditional SCA games as well. During Tip-it-Tag, Mikki collided skull first with a mule. Ouch! Winchester, Mikki's horse was noted to be the best outfitted. Many thanks go to Lady Aurora. Puszki was chosen to the King's stable and Winchester was chosen to the Queen's stable so Rivenstar made a full sweep. Noted that at Court, Their Majesties announced that Shadowed Stars will no longer be a shire but now is a barony.

Officer Reports: Seneschal—Gallien noted that his report was sent in and accepted.

Chronicler—nothing to report

Chatelaine—Rocky printed the medieval patterns book that Virnin sent a link for on the Rivenlist. Arabella gets first dibs on borrowing it. As always, if you need garb or wish to donate garb, get in touch with Rocky. She is looking to get together to collect and donate garb to another group. She is also still looking for someone to speak to the Magna Charta group in Indy in October. Also, Monday afternoon Oct 6th is the annual Walnut Elementary School renaissance fair in La Doga. If anyone is interested in presenting at it please contact Rocky. It is the Monday after the Fischer's Renaissance faire.

Student Org.—Bethie has had email confirmation for the rooms for the rest of the semester. We will be meeting in 320 STEW for three more weeks then moving to 214 STEW. She sent out 28 invites to joint the organization.

Exchequer—we still have funds

Archery—There was practice on Sunday with three people attending but none on Thurs due to rain. Looking forward to next Thurs. Noted that an Official Archery Marshal is needed at some point in the future.

Equestrian—There will be one more practice this season on this coming Sunday because of a request from a Lafayette Firefighter on behalf of her daughter. So 6 PM Sunday will be the last practice before the winter hiatus.

Madrigali—They are starting Christmas Court practice and it went well.

Baron—Wulf announced that he needs archers who can shoot flaming arrows for Zarina's memorial service. Flaming arrows are a bad idea for hitting the boat but he'd like a flight of flaming arrows (to nearly miss the boat) as per Zarina's request. Wulf is looking for a Captain of Archers to lead it, Gallien volunteered. He also is looking for someone to videotape the event for those who are not able to attend. He said that he'd officiate the event.

Current Business: Christmas Court—Rocky will chicken on St. Anne's and email the Rivenlist. We already have Marriot Hall for 12/13 but that is not an ideal date. Baronial report—the semi-annual Baron and Baroness report is due to Crown soon. Three Saints—Oct 2015 is the 40th Anniversary of the Barony of Rivenstar. Looking for ideas for Three Saints this year.

Other Business: Francoise brought back some pottery items from Zarina's when they helped clean up her things. These items are available for purchase and should be linked to the Rivenstar page. They will also be at the memorial. Any monies collected will help with Zarina's final expenses. The Feast of the Hunter's Moon is in 4 weeks—it is a great place to make some purchases.

Monday, September 15, 2014

Event Reports: MKAOD—Gallien and Pieter attended. Gallien taught a class on experimenting with tested techniques using the eight attendees in various arrangements. There was a lengthy Court at which four Pelicans were elevated. Wednesday company received a Purple Fretty for all its assistance at Pennsic. The Scribes were recognized for their service as "combat scribes" during Pennsic and received a royal augmentation of arms in the form of a Royal Gold Quill in Flame.

Lady Narissa was given a Purple Fret for being Exemplar to Rapier (she championed MK1K). There was a moderately large amount of fencing available. Warder Cecil has been cleaning Pieter's clock for several years now. He told Pieter just how he beat him. Pieter later acted on the information and it worked!

Other Events: There was flaming arrow archery practice for Zarina's memorial. Also a riding practice for 1 visitor who was sent to Rivenstar by Janusz and Leonie.

Officers Reports: Seneschal—the quarterly report is in and was accepted.

Chronicler—nothing to report

Equestrian—Practice will be held again on Sunday at 1PM if the weather holds. There have been two other requests for equestrian practices: one from the King and 1 from Savaric who though he lives three hours away, would like to participate. They are looking to put together a Facebook page for the equestrian group.

Madrigali—They are singing again. Getting ready for Christmas Court

Archery—Catriona is looking to purchase more archery equipment. There will be one more Flaming Arrow practice this Thurs. at 6 PM

Webminister—Catriona will take over as webminister from Yoshichi.

Student Org.—Bethie has the student org president's workshop tomorrow so we'll be all squared away with Purdue at that time.

Chatelaine—Rocky is still looking for a volunteer to talk with the Magna Charta group. If you need garb or have any to turn in, contact Rocky. There is also an upcoming demo opportunity at the Walnut Elementary School renaissance faire on Oct 6th if anyone is interested.

Exchequer—we are still solvent

A&S—Aurora sent in her report—go out, do things and let Aurora know. The first sewing meeting went well with 4 attendees including one newbie. Aurora said she'd like to make mead, cordial etc. and is looking for someone to teach that and other classes.

Baroness—Takaya said she's happy to be at meeting again! She will send Wulf the information he needs to put in the Baronial report which is due on Sat. and it is his turn (hint, hint).

Baron—Wulf announced that he is ready to do the report. He was musing whether or not he and Takaya were still Baron and Baroness because the election results have been so long in coming (nice try, Wulf).

Current Business: Christmas Court—The Baron and Baroness have confirmed that they both have a conflict for Dec. 13 so the event will need to be held on Dec. 6th. Rocky said that St. Anne's is available. We will take it! Thanks for securing the site, Rocky.

Three Saints—The stone for a 40th anniversary is ruby so we might incorporate that in somewhere. Takaya suggested a redux of past feasts with one course from the 10th anniversary, one from the 20th and the 30th and finally something new for the 40th. Pork and Apple Pie was mentioned. The actual anniversary date is Oct. 25th. We may choose to have a 40th celebration for the Barony as well as the official celebration at 3 Saints. Are there any site suggestions? If you suggest a site and theme this does not mean that you are automatically the autocrat. Catriona will look into Exploration Acres. Easter is April 4/5 weekend and will be avoided if possible. One option is that we might use campus with various buildings involved.

Other Business: Zarina's memorial—The boat will be ready and Wulf will bring it out to Pieter's at 2PM on Sat. The day is to be 78 degrees and sunny. Wulf is still looking for someone to videotape the memorial. Gallien volunteered his camera. Anyone willing to bring and help set up food and drinks is welcome to do so. It would be nice if the archers were in garb. The service is set to begin at 7 (dusk) but people will start showing up at 5 PM. Wulf will have a sound system and there are one or two slide shows in the works.

Other Other Business: Gallien had a thought that a petition for the sanctification of another worthy individual might go forth. Thor Bjorn (though he isn't a member of Rivenstar). There is a reliquary and the stories get bigger. He may be slated for sainthood.

Monday, September 22, 2014

Event Reports: There was riding practice on Sunday but Mikki is not here for Pieter to brag to. Pieter was on Shadow and they are becoming more in-tune, not as one yet, but better.

Officer Reports: Equestrian—there was riding on Sunday and Takaya was not bucked off.

Archery—There was no practice on Sunday due to the wind but on Thurs. there was practice with flaming arrows. They practiced CLOUT, which is shooting an arrow up and over to put it inside a castle or to come down on top of a target. They used a hula-hoop target and Nan put one in. They all hit the boat and missed the water. There will still be two practices this week.

Madrigali—They are at a critical passage of the Boar's Head Carol and only if they sing it well can it be performed for Christmas Court.

Exchequer—Rivenstar sent the executor of Lucy's (Zarina) estate home with $200 but still didn't move enough stuff. If you are interested in any of the pottery items contact Wulf and 'Coise.

Chirurgeon—Kingdom Chirurgeon Dani said that there are lots of questions coming in on the status of that office.

Chronicler—no publication just now

Chatelaine—if you need garb or have garb to donate, contact Rocky. She still needs someone to talk to the Magna Charta group and remember that the LaDoga area Walnut Elementary School renaissance faire is coming up soon. The Feast of the Hunter's Moon has school days coming up on Oct. 2 & 3 so if you can help with that, see Rocky as well.

Herald—Drake sent in a note asking that if you need a name or device, please contact him.

A&S—Aurora sent in a note saying Do Things. Wulf made a pretty awesome Viking ship for Zarina's memorial. The way it burned was truly period.

Baroness—Takaya wants to know when the Halloween party will be?

Baron—Halloween is on Friday this year. 'Coise said that they will be at home. So it looks like the Halloween party will be on Fri., Oct. 31st.

Current Business: Three Saints—Rocky put forth the notion for a theme of Three Saints and a Winged Hussar. Does anyone have an event location idea?

We need to try to nail down the ideas and date for the spring event site.

Christmas Court—Will be at St. Anne's on Dec. 6th. The Baroness was asking about looking into the Wesley foundation on campus as another possible site for Christmas Court just to be on or near campus.

Other Business: Proposal—Aurora proposed to do an activity every other week at meeting to encourage people, especially new people to attend meetings. Catriona has the paperwork for the officer change for webminister.

Parking Lot Business: Duchess Zarina's memorial—Wulf put on a good show. There was lots of good symbolism. The boat burned spectacularly. The storm that evening was spectacular and showed Thor's approval. The music was great too. Everyone seemed to get something out of it in a positive way. Nearly everyone who attended put something into the wake as well. The Art Guild had no clue that she was in the SCA or that she was a belly dancer. Many guests were astounded at the many sides of Lucy. She was a strong presence in many areas. Wulf thanked everyone for the part they played.

Monday, October 13, 2014

Officer Reports: Seneschal—Warder Don Adam Carmichael was the most recent recipient of Thor Bjorn's Favor and it is now in its third generation. The names of those who wore the favor have been transferred to each generation in turn and now it needs to be re-sewn again. Gallien would like to see something with more longevity like perhaps a bound book with Thor Bjorn's likeness on the front and a page in it for each recipient rather than to keep replacing the Favor again and again in its entirety.

Archery—No one showed up on Sunday. There was some miscommunication in the start time between 2 and 4 PM. Sewing at Aurora's goes until 3 or 4 PM so archery needs to start later, after sewing is over.

Marshal—The idea of purchasing loaner armor with money from the student group is at an impasse as to who will purchase the gear and what will be purchased. Discussion on what needs to be purchased is needed. Gallien will get involved as the student advisor and carry the project forward.

Madrigali—There was practice tonight and 3 people sang.

Exchequer—Francoise said that yes, we can use Baronial funds for new loaner gear purchases but it involves keeping an inventory and keeping track of the items, thus paperwork. Loaner gear gets washed about once a month and feebreeze is used on it at other times.

Webminister—Gallien asked if anyone has gone to the website lately to offer suggestions for Catriona things to work on.

Chatelaine—there was a demo at the LaDoga Walnut Elementary School. Lots of fun. Pieter, Nan and Rocky attended.

Event Report: Sigulf and Guilianna went to Rendezvous at the Bridge last weekend. There were 35–40 heavy fighters, a good A&S exhibit, great tourney prize (stained glass by Kirsten) and a really good feast. It rained a little but not enough to interfere with the event.

Other Business: The BEAVER is BACK. He was stalking Pieter this week.

very successful experiment. A discussion on the use of and different types of Japanese thumb rings followed.

Equestrian—There was a visitor from Sternfeld this week to inspect Rivenstar's games and equipment to put a bid in for the same types of equipment there.

Chronicler—Nothing to report

Seneschal—Narissa and Don Adam have donated gorgets and 'Coise donated gloves to the loaner gear for fencing. Looking to order 4 modern fencing jackets and two bolts of linen for crafting garb.

Student Org.—Bethie is looking to republish the room schedules.

Madrigali—Tonight's rehearsal was well attended and pretty good.

Current Business: The annual Baronial Halloween Pun Party will be held on Friday, Oct 31st beginning at 7 PM at the Baron's house. The earliest the judging will take place is about 9 PM.

Christmas Court will probably start at 2 PM this year.

There was also a discussion to have activities after meeting but since meeting doesn't end until 9 PM, the activities would probably be too late for most people.

Monday, October 20, 2014

Event Report: Wulf and 'Coise went to Crown. We have a new but experienced Prince and Princess. Ragnvaldr defeated Ix in the finals. There were not one but two points of honor given. Both finalists are members of the Bronze Ring. "It was an enjoyable Crown to watch," to quote Wulf. Feast was a tappas style meal.

Officer Reports: Exchequer—'Coise saw some discussion on purchasing new fighting equipment. There are now 3 to 5 undergrads showing up regularly for heavy practice and 3 to 5 new fencers as well.

Archery—There was practice on Sunday but it was too wet on Thurs. They tried something new; using the pull position that is shown in the movie Avatar. They all hooked to the left and it was deemed a not

Among other details of her adventurous life as Lucy Seaman, she worked as a personal assistant to groundbreaking science fiction author Harlan Ellison and was the first female ever to work as a member of the ground crew for the Goodyear blimp. Lucy used her blimp experiences to write and sell a torrid romance novel, "Walking On Air," using the pen name of Michele Robbe. She also flew aboard the Concorde, the world's first supersonic passenger transport. She had dozens of unlikely adventures in the SCA, Fandom, and life, and she was a dab hand with a bullwhip.

Her wish was to be cremated, but not in the usual way. On September 20 a sunset wake was held at Huis van Doorn, and per Her Grace's wishes, her ashes were loaded aboard a detailed, five-foot long replica of a Viking longship built by our baron, Duke Master Moonwulf, placed in the pond and set afire by our baroness, Countess Takaya, and pushed gently out for Zarina's last voyage. Also on board the ship were small amounts of ashes of two of her close friends April Graham and Glenalee Adams (known within the SCA as Kirkira Anastasia Tamarina or "Kira"). Kira passed away on May 30 of last year, also due to complications from cancer.

A contingent of Rivenstar archers loosed a salute of flaming arrows, and as the ship blazed up music requested by Zarina was played. The ship burned for a half-hour, despite the appearance of a sudden thunder storm. After it burned to the waterline, the gutted hull capsized and released her ashes into the water, fittingly accompanied by a peal of thunder.

After the ship burning, everyone repaired to the van Doorn great room for food, drink, song and sharing of memories. Folk attending included friends and colleagues of Zarina from several different communities, including SCA, Science Fiction Fandom, and Art. It was an event marked by both tears and laughter, but was memorable for all, and a fitting sendoff for a grand lady.

Nice Things are Happening All the Time

“What (do) you like the most about your group, whether on a canton/baronial/kingdom level”. This was the question posed on Facebook in early October. Andrew is one of the new fencers who started training with Rivenstar this fall. His eloquent answer follows:

“I’m completely new to my group, the Barony of Rivenstar in the Midrealm, and to the SCA—so this answer is from the perspective of a new recruit.

I have been completely and overwhelmingly amazed each week at the generosity and welcoming spirit of every member.

Every single practice or event I’ve attended in the last month and a half, there have been more hands outstretched in kindness than I can count. Each week, the entire membership happily and freely offers up their time for instruction and education—enabling the fun for myself and the other new members rather than spending their practice time on their own projects or practice.

Each week, the entire membership have offered up their own garb and gear as loaner equipment—sometimes even sitting out themselves to allow a new person the equipment needed to participate.

Each week, the entire membership has been friendly, welcoming, happy and inclusive—I have never felt that I was less welcome than the Baron or Seneschal themselves, never felt marginalized.

My wife watched the same demo I did, and felt no excitement or interest—had no desire to join the SCA. But the level of effort and kindness so freely given to a new member is so high that, upon hearing so many stories about the awesome spirit of this group, she has come along to several practices and is now excitedly joining in—learning to make garb and choosing her name.

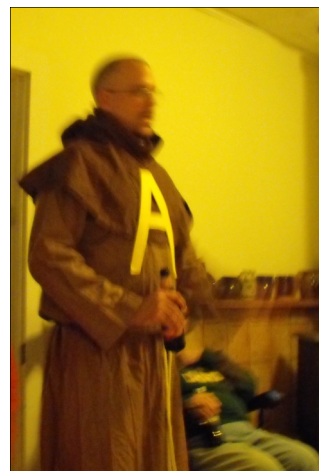

When I saw a demonstration on the local campus, I was interested in the SCA. When I met the members of the Barony of Rivenstar, I was home in the SCA.”

When I met the members of the Barony of Rivenstar, I was home in the SCA.

More Call-out Photos

The Baron's Annual Halloween Pun Party

The Rivenstar annual pun party was held on Halloween night at the Baron's home. The puns were corny to bad as usual. Nan had a drawing pun, several others had acting puns. Gallien got more mileage from the monk garb with his rendition of a chip-monk. Prizes were awarded. Food was consumed and the Baron played his banjo. Fun was had by all. Thanks Wulf and 'Coise.
