Summer Fun and Recruitment for the Barony of Rivenstar

By Katrín Grímsdóttir

The Barony of Rivenstar entertains as well as educates the Greater Lafayette Community at the September Mosey Down Main Street and the Medieval Society of Purdue's Fall Semester callouts at the Armory.

September was the last Mosey event of the season. For those of us that didn't make it to PENNSIC, we pulled out all the bells and whistles for this Mosey and the kids loved it. We had them try on different kinds of helms, gloves, and weapons while parents snapped shots of their kids fighting knights in armor.

In the pictures on the right, you can see His Excellency Baron Adhamh MacAoidh engaging a skilled youngster in battle. Lots of people stopped to take photos of the mysterious knight in armor graciously taking a beating from the young boy. Check out that great footwork. We hope to see him again someday when he's old enough to play.

Fall is a big recruitment time for the Barony as well. We get an influx of thousands of college freshman looking for something to round out their college experience. For many, the SCA is a welcome distraction to Purdue's mind melting freshman class load.

Unfortunately, Indiana weather was not on our side this year. The big draws like Boiler Gold Rush and the Slayer Hill Concerts were rained out, so we didn't have a chance to advertise the Medieval Society of Purdue's Fall Semester Callout.

With some quick last minute organizing, we were able to create flyers, handouts, a Twitter feed, Facebook event pages, and create some sidewalk chalk signs to point the students our way. We had two callouts this year to try to get more attention. Both events had great turnouts from the students and the baronial populous.

Besides the excellent fencing and heavy fighting demonstrations, we had tables with A&S projects, a video display of pictures from PENNSIC, and lots of people ready to chat about their favorite SCA experiences. We had productive conversations with potential new members, many of which have shown up at recent fighter and archery practices.

Between the recruitment from the local community and the fresh young blood from the University, we hope to keep the legacy of the Barony of Rivenstar alive and flourishing for many years to come.

Rivenstar's Baronial Business Meeting Minutes

Meeting Minutes for 8-22-16

13 members in attendance, one new person

Officer Reports:

Baron/Baroness

There was a demo in Wurm Wald. Three Rivenstar members were there. It was a well-attended event.

Chronicler

The newsletter will be published online this week and she will have paper copies available next week.

Herald – nothing new as of yet.

Exchequer - The report went in successfully.

Equestrian

We held a successful practice on Sunday. Takaya talked about her riding experiences with one of the horses.

Chatelaine

- Mosey is Saturday September 3rd.
- There's a demo scheduled Oct 3rd at a local school that has a medieval themed festival.
- The Gold Key may need to be moved from its current location. Rocky will keep us updated.
- She went through her supplies and brought in a stack of books to give away at the meeting.
- The new person attending our meeting found out about us from the Mosey event.

Webminister - Ursus submitted his report.

Madrigals

They have resumed practices for the year and are starting to rehearse for Christmas court.

Archery

We've had low attendance lately due to weather and people's crazy summer schedules. We will continue to have Thursday evening practices until it becomes too dark after 5:30 pm. Sunday practices officially start at 4:00 pm Sundays at Huis Doorn.

Seneschal

- There have been changes made at the Society level about contracts and services pertaining to use of sites. Only the Seneschal or officially recognized deputies may sign official contracts for the group. Breanna will post the link for those wishing to read the full statement.
- The group discussed what that meant for unofficial practices like the ones occasionally held at Huis Doorn and that there are separate insurance requirements and rules for Equestrian activities.

Events and Announcements:

Campus Activities

- BGR was postponed until this Saturday 27th due to rain.
- Katrin made quarter page callout handouts to give out at the event. We are making arrangements to man the booth due to the rescheduling.
- Apparently there is another student organization event this Friday, but since it was not brought to our attention before this meeting, we won't be able to participate in that one. Purdue has been seriously lacking with getting advanced information out about these events.
- Griffin took down the big window display from last week. The next window display will be September 6th. We will discuss what we want to do with that display next meeting.
- Our Fall Callout is August 31st in the Armory during fighter practice at 8:00 pm. John offered his photos to be used for a slide show presentation. Pieter offered to try to make that happen.

A&S Classes

- Breanna will be teaching a Viking wire weaving class. Class time and place TBD.
- If you would like to teach a class, contact the MOAS.

Post PENNSIC Cleanup

Trailer unloading (take #2) is happening Tuesday August 24th at 6:30 pm at Huis Doorn.

Christmas Court

Breanna and Wilhelm went to go see the Lutheran church that Adrienne goes to and they said it would do fine for a Christmas court site. They showed us pictures. Everyone seemed happy with the site. Someone will try to schedule the social hall for December 3rd as our first choice with Dec 10th as a second choice.

Spring Event

- Katrin generated a list of possible venues and posted it to the email list. We went over that list and made a list of pros and cons for many of them.
- It was finally decided that since we want to do the Tournament of Chivalry, we should have a larger more accessible site like the Tippecanoe County Fairgrounds.
- Katrin will check on possible dates for the site. April 1st, 8th, or 29th were preferred since Stone Dog is the 16th and another popular event is the 22nd.
- If we do April 1st, Katrin thought would be fun to do Three Saints and a Fool.
- We outright rejected Sigulf's suggestion to call the event Three Saints and a Sausage Fest.
- Since the dishwashing facilities are not ideal at the fairgrounds we discussed having more minimalist feast options such as having another hog roast and pies in disposable aluminum baking pans.
- Rocky found some cheap eco-friendly disposable trays. See Facebook for the website.

Rivenstar's Baronial Business Meeting Minutes

Meeting Minutes for 8-29-16
16 Members in attendance

Event Reports:

Master Adam received an Augmentation of Arms: Three Adams Bickering.
Ursus received a Cavendish Knot.

Officer Reports:

Equestrian – We had another successful practice.

Chronicler - The Jul/Aug issued has been published. One print copy was made for John. Next issue will include PENNSIC and the rest of the summer activities.

Exchequer - Working on monthly reports and statements.

Archery - Attendance has been low especially on Thursdays. We discussed ways to get the word out.

Chatelaine - Mosey is this Saturday. Ursus will bring his tent to the Wednesday fighter practice since he cannot attend Mosey. Katrin and Wilhelm will gather everything they need on Wednesday so Wilhelm and a few others have everything they need for setup Saturday between 4:30 and 5:00 pm.

Nothing new to report from the Herald, Webminister, and Seneschal.

Announcements:

Next Meeting September 5 (Labor Day Monday) is still on assuming we can get into the room.

Callout

- Since both the BGR dates were cancelled due to rain, we decided to keep the August 31st Callout and add another Callout on September 7th.
- Set up times start 7:15-7:30ish depending how much stuff you've got.
- Katrin volunteered to create a mini callout handout flyer to hand out at Mosey and create Facebook event pages for both dates.
- Nicoli volunteered to generate a twitter account for the barony for the purpose of pushing recruitment announcements to the campus feeds. Katrin will help with content. We may add other platforms later, but these platforms will not be used for intra-baronial communication.
- There will be a chalk party and posters will be hung around campus.

Communications

- After a lengthy debate, we decided that we will continue to use both the RivenList and the Facebook pages as they both still serve a purpose. Facebook allows us to create event pages which have become popular with Scadians all over the country.
- There was a plea from those who still mostly use the email list that if you post something important to the FB page that

The Barony of Rivenstar cordially invites you to their annual

Contact the Chatelaine for loaner garb.

There is no site fee.
We must be off site by 10:00 pm.

Rivenstar's Baronial Business Meeting Minutes

you also post it to the email list.

- Adhamh and Ursus will be added as FB administrators. We will try to find a way to auto post between the two platforms.

- The consensus from the group was that we don't want to add yet another app into the mix if we don't have to and the students' dislike of "outdated" tech such as Facebook would not deter the majority of us who regularly use Facebook for communication within the Barony and with other SCA groups.

Spring Event

- Katrin posted the website information for the Tippecanoe County Fairgrounds to the FB list and the RivenList including an aerial view of the site and rental fees.

- Their rentals rates have changed since the last time we used their facilities, so we reevaluated what we will or will not need for holding a TOC.

- So far, we want the Home Economics Building, The Swine Barn, and one of the parking lots. We may also want the Exhibit hall and the sheep barn depending on A&S and or Royalty needs.

- Katrin will email HRH's Chamberlain to inquire about the typical draw for a TOC as well as try again to contact the Fairgrounds Coordinator to confirm a date.

- We want April 1st as our first choice with the 8th and 29th as backups. April 1st can be planned as an all-indoor event.

- There was much after meeting discussion about doing a minimal feast, hog roasts, and using as few serving dishes as possible since dishwashing is limited on site. Katrin will check to see if the Shelter House is rentable and if we can do a hog roast there.

Meeting Minutes for 9-12-16

17 Members in attendance

Event Reports:

Ankara hosted a successful candle making session. They made container candles and discussed period candle designs. There are plenty of supplies to possibly do another session. Lots of barony members were working on garb and other projects as well.

Wurm Wald's Sunday fighting practice drew in lots of new people and is shaping up to be regular draw for fighters locally and from neighboring groups.

Officer Reports:

Archery

We had 14 people at this last Sunday practice. Some of the newbies came to us from the Mosey events.

Madrigals

They are working on new music for Christmas Court.

Exchequer

The August report was signed and submitted.

Chatelaine

We have a demo coming up October 3rd at Ladoga. Rocky will get us more information about location.

[Nothing new to report from the other officers in attendance: Chronicler, Herald, and Seneschal.]

Announcements:

Christmas Court

Brianna will have more information for us next week about the location. The tentative date is Dec 3rd.

Spring Event

We are still looking for an appropriate site to host a TOC. The buildings that we really needed at the Fairgrounds are booked for most of the spring. Lots of new potential sites were suggested. Several people were tasked with fact finding.

Baronial Gifts

During the meeting, Adrienne presented Their Excellencies with a hand crocheted blanket that she had been working on since last Christmas Court. It's blue with a large white Rivenstar in the center.

"Ooh, we love surprises. Is it bigger than our Baroness?"
"Why yes, yes it is!"

Rivenstar's Baronial Business Meeting Minutes

Meeting Minutes for 9-19-16

12 Members in attendance +3 new people

Event Reports:

Nan and Pieter attended the Middle Kingdom Academy of Defense (MKAoD) event. Kai (sp?) was elevated to the Order of the Masters of Defense. Nan spoke on his behalf during the elevation.

A&S Projects of Note:

Francoise worked on garb projects that will use up all of her scraps.

Katrin created a fitted cell phone belt pouch and added the chronicler badge with embroidery.

John brought in and worked on one of his woven belts.

Officer Reports:

Archery

Wilhelm spoke highly of our newest recruit Ariel and her skills as an archer. This brought up the discussion of having a baronial championship contest. We will need to discuss it with the Baron and Baroness.

Chatelaine

We have a demo coming up October 3rd at Ladoga. The Feast of the Hunters Moon and the Fisher's Renaissance Faire are both the same weekend October 1st and 2nd.

Chronicler

(Via email) Aurora had requested that we not use acronyms for the meeting minutes. This may be off-putting for the newer members who are not in the know of SCA (Society for Creative Anachronism) jargon. Katrin will endeavor to type out the full names with the acronym.

Equestrian

The group was able to get some greatly needed training in for the horses this weekend.

Exchequer

Nothing new, but she wanted to remind those who will need event site deposits that they will need to let her know so she can bring the checkbook for signatures.

Seneschal

Brianna discussed SCA corporate's new contract policy for seneschals. So far, all of our bases are covered including equestrian activities. The event steward/autocrat is considered a seneschal deputy and with permission, can sign contracts in the seneschal's absence.

Announcements and Events:

Christmas Court

- We decided that we want the church from noon until 11:00 pm. We don't expect to stay that late, but it gives us a good cushion for cleanup. Brianna is finalizing the plans.

- Christmas Court will be held December 3, 2016. It will be at the Our Savior Lutheran Church in West Lafayette on the corner of Fowler Street and Vine Street.

- Katrin will post a Facebook Event page once Brianna has gotten the final confirmation.

Spring Event

- We are still looking for an appropriate site to host a TOC (Tournament of Chivalry).

- Since we decided that the TOC (or Slug Fest as it was called) was going to be the primary focus of the event, we can choose a site to fit those needs.

- We would not need a full kitchen nor would we need space for classes or other non-fighting activities. We would not have an evening feast, but we might have food brought in for lunch on site.

- The Purdue Armory has the space and parking availability, but Purdue has weird rules about collecting money for the vendors and at the troll gate. Someone is looking into what all that would entail, but it's not promising.

- The Family Sports Center between Klondike Road and 400 West has indoor soccer fields and is rentable for $100 per hour. It's big enough for what we need, lots of parking, and is not too far off the beaten path. Pieter and Brianna will meet up to visit the site.

- Sternfeld is having a TOD (Tournament of Defense) April 8th and Stone Dog Inn is on April 15th, so both of those dates are now out due to conflicts.

Archery Gear and Winter Archery

- There have been requests to use the funds generated by last year's lunch profits for fixing the archery loaner gear. Ideas were offered for fixing gear. Nothing was decided. (That would require a formal proposal, estimated repair costs, material costs, and someone to champion the project.)

- William offered to take a look at the arrows to see what needed to be done.

- William also asked (via Facebook) about the idea of getting archery nets. We discussed using the Armory for winter practices, but there was an empathetic no against doubling up fighter practice and archery practice on Wednesday nights. With the juggler's club at the other end there is simply not enough room to play safely. More investigation is needed as well as a volunteer to get the information from Purdue about the specifics before we can discuss buying nets.

Meeting Minutes for 10-3-16

10 Members in attendance

Event Reports:

Lots of reports from Feast of the Hunters Moon which is an annual local reenactment event for the 1700's with crossover from lots of SCA folks.

Officer Reports:

Archery - Despite many of us being at the Feast, there was an archery practice held on Sunday.

Rivenstar's Baronial Business Meeting Minutes

Chronicler - The next issue of the newsletter should be out next week.

Equestrian - No equestrian practice held due to participation in the Feast.

Announcements and Events:

Wulf's Annual Halloween Costume Pun Party

Will be held Saturday October 29th at 7:00 pm at Wulf & Cois' house. Dress up as your favorite pun or Halloween costume. Bring a dish, beverage, and/or dessert to share. Wulf will send out an email to the list with more details.

Christmas Court

- It will be December 3, 2016. Doors open at noon. Event ends at 10:00 pm. We need to be off site by 11:00 pm.
- The address is Our Savior Lutheran Church, 300 West Fowler Avenue; West Lafayette, IN 47906. It's located on the corner of Fowler Street and Vine Street.
- Katrin will post a Facebook Event page. We need to get the Christmas court information posted to the website. Ursus will be contacted.

Spring Event

- Gallien is looking into reserving the Armory through the student org.
- Purdue requires groups to hire one of their cashiers to collect money for us and then they reimburse groups after a week or so. We doubt this will be acceptable to vendors, so we will simply not have merchants at the armory.
- If we use the armory, we will also need to modify our site fees to be donations. Since we are a non-profit group, we should be able to skirt the Purdue vending policies. We will need to investigate that further.
- Their Royal Majesties asked us to host a Tournament of Chivalry, so we are going to proceed with having a simple TOC event with feast.
- Sternfeld is having a TOD (Tournament of Defense) April 8th (which is also Purdue's Spring Fest Bug Bowl) and Stone Dog Inn is on April 15th, so both of those dates are out due to proximity conflicts. We are looking for feast sites for April 22nd or 29th.
- We need to have use of the kitchen for the full day. We went through the list of potential sites and checked off which ones wouldn't serve our needs. Brianna is going to check a few more sites. Nan is going to check out the Marsh building to see if it can be rented.
- We discussed reducing the number of feast seats sold to open up the possibility have using a smaller venue.
