

Christmas Court 2021

Long Lost Award Scroll

By Lady Katrin Grimsdottir

Just before the pandemic hit, I had been researching the Midrealm Order of Precedence so I could update our Baronial records when I came across something peculiar. I called Lady Brianna the Small and asked her if her husband had ever been awarded a Dragon's Barb. She didn't remember Wilhelm ever being called into court for a Barb, and yet, there it was in his awards list online. Jacob, our seneschal, contacted the Dragon Herald who contacted Their Majesties who confirmed that Wilhelm had been awarded a Dragon's Barb for his excellent service and skill in archery. We tracked down the keeper of the scrolls and for the last three years made attempts to retrieve said scroll. Despite being stymied by the plague, we brought the scroll to Their Excellencies who presented Lord Wilhelm of Rivenstar his scroll inducting him into the Order of the Dragon's Barb at Christmas Court. It only took four and a half years, but we say congratulations to Wilhelm and Hoobah!

The RivenSTAR Quarterly

On December 4th, 2021, we gathered for Rivenstar's Annual Christmas Court. Our celebration was full of merriment and appreciation for all that we do for the Barony. Katrin hosted a largess derby to replenish the baronial coffers. 'Coise won the largess derby populous vote. The officers were recognized for their tireless efforts. Brianna, Nan, and Pieter received handmade wreathes in appreciation for their service, and the baronial scribes hand crafted beautiful thank you cards.
